Extended Winter Holidays

UCM President Charles Ambrose has announced an extended winter holiday break to include Jan. 2-3, 2014 as days off for university employees. The campus will reopen for normal operations on Jan. 6.

A decision supported by the Board of Governors, President Ambrose said the extra days off are in recognition of employees' dedication and hard work during a busy and successful fall 2013 semester, and a compressed calendar due to the timing of this year's Thanksgiving holidays.
