RE: International Payments

The Office of Student Financial Services (SFS) offers students from abroad multiple options to pay their Student Account bill. Whether you are attending UCM for the first time or returning, the following guidelines and information will help you make your payment easily.

The SFS office bills students per term for tuition and fees. Room and board is billed only if living on campus. SFS collects payment only for what is billed to the student; payment in excess of semester charges cannot be accepted nor “held” over for a future term. Due to this, if your bank loan includes living expenses (off campus rent, utilities, food, etc.), the student must make arrangements to receive these funds directly from their lender. As a service, the U.S. Bank on-campus branch offers personal bank accounts for all University students.

Payment Options

Wire Transfers: Secure payments from any country and bank may be made at www.ucmo.flywire.com. If an overpayment is received, the amount greater than the student account balance will be returned to the sender.

Bank Draft: Demand Drafts or checks should be made payable to the University of Central Missouri and are accepted during regular office hours at Ward Edwards, Suite 1100.

3rd Party Payments: Government or employer sponsorships should be handled through the 3rd party billing process.

Student Loans: Loans obtained by the student from their home bank should be payable to the student directly if the amount will exceed semester charges billed. The student may then present payment to UCM when billed.

Cash, Check, or Debit Card: U.S. Currency, Checks or Debit Cards from banks residing within the U.S. are accepted during regular office hours at Ward Edwards, Suite 1100. Check payments may also be made online through the UCM Payment Center in MyCentral. Please note: International debit cards may be used to withdrawal cash from the machine at the bank on campus (nominal fee charged) since they cannot be used in the SFS office to make payment.

Credit Card: May only be made online through MyCentral; a non-refundable fee is charged by the processor.
