

68 athletes named Academic All American

Nashville, TN - The University of Central Missouri and Fairleigh Dickinson University each placed two members on the first-team of The National Tenpin Coaches Association's 2007 Academic All-America team.

Heading the list is Division II Player of the Year Bryanna Caldwell of The University of Central Missouri and Division III Player of the Year Vicki Spratford from New Jersey City University. Tina Peak of UCM along with FDU's Becky Ketcham and Christi White rounded out the first team.

The NTCA honored fifteen student-athletes with first, second and third team mention. Sixty-eight student-athletes from eighteen schools were named Academic All-Americans. To be honored, student-athletes had to achieve a minimum of a 3.4 grade point average during the recent academic year.
