Late turnovers cost Mules, as they fall 13-10 to Western

Coming into their game with Missouri Western, the Central Missouri State University Mules knew they had to hold onto the football. And for three quarters, they did just that. But two fumbles in the final 15 minutes cost Central Missouri, as it fell 13-10 to the Griffons.

The Mules (3-2, 1-2 MIAA) carried a 10-0 lead into the intermission. After a scoreless first quarter, CMSU finally got on the scoreboard on a Will Caldwell 25-yard burst up the middle with 8:00 to play in the half. That drive capped a three-play, 34-yard drive that was set up when Missouri Western (4-2, 2-2 MIAA) was forced to punt from its one following a Maurice White sack.

The Griffons went three-and-out on their next possession and were forced to punt from their own 35. It looked like CMSU would get great field position, but MWSU punter Jay White blasted a 64-yarder that rolled dead on the Mules one.

No problem. Junior quarterback Toby Korrodi coolly led Central Missouri on a 15-play drive covering 86 yards and eating eight minutes. When the drive stalled at Western's 13, freshman Spencer Webb booted a 30-yard field goal into the wind for the halftime lead. Korrodi was 7-of-9 for 65 yards on the drive.

The Griffons closed the gap to 10-3 with a field goal on its first drive of the second half. After the Mules were forced to punt, Western used seven plays to cover 45 yards. From there, Robbie Walling hit a 31-yard field goal.

Senior Micah Hefner led Central Missouri State with six receptions for 75 yards last Saturday vs. the Griffons of Missouri Western.

Series Record

Central Missouri State owns a 16-2 advantage in the series, including the last 14 in a row. Southwest Baptist last defeated the Mules, 21-18, in 1990.

On its third possession, Western tried some trickery. When a seven-play, 45-yard drive stalled at the Mules' 12-yard line, Coach Jerry Partridge called for a fake field goal. RoShawn Marshall, though, sniffed out the play while rushing the kick and dropped White (the holder) to thwart the attempt.

Western was forced to punt on its next possession, but the ball bounced up and hit senior wide receiver Delanie Walker. Western recovered, and needed just four plays to cover 36 yards. Jeremiah White got the final 12 yards for the score. With the PAT it was 10-10 with 5:17 remaining.

After watching the Griffons' fake field goal fail, Central Missouri decided to try some chicanery of its own. On second-and-13, Korrodi threw complete to Imani Butler. Butler tried the old hook-and-ladder play, but his pitch to Caldwell was off the mark and Missouri Western's Siraj Mohammad recovered at the CMSU 36. The Griffons gained 26 yards on eight plays, with freshman Robbie Walling nailing the 27-yard field goal for the 13-10 lead.

CMSU had a chance. On third and three, Korrodi hit Micah Hefner on a 43-yard catch and run. Western was playing a prevent defense, though, and Brad Kester brought Hefner down at the Western 15 as the clock ran out.

Korrodi finished 23-for-35 for 210 yards and Caldwell had 86 yards on 16 carries. Hefner finished with six receptions for 75 yards.

Sophomore free safety Kendall Ricketts had 15 tackles in the game. Senior cornerback Ricky Armstrong added nine stops and a pass breakup.

Bearcats hold off Missouri-Rolla, 40-38

Missouri-Rolla's Evan Gray slipped on a two-point conversion attempt with 1.5 seconds left in regulation to tie the game as Southwest Baptist hung on to a 40-38 non-conference win over the Miners at Allgood-Bailey Stadium.

Missouri-Rolla (4-2) went 96 yards in the final 1:03 for the touchdown to pull within two points, when Aston Gronewald caught his fourth scoring pass of the game from Gray. It wasn't enough, though, to complete the comeback.

SBU (2-4, 0-3 MIAA) rushed for a school-record 546 yards on the ground on 69 carries, which was the second SBU record broken, and finished with 607 yards of total offense.

The ground game brought career-high efforts for junior Moine Nicholson (229 yards rushing) and junior Robert Clardy (226 yards rushing). Nicholson's effort was just 9 yards shy of breaking Lester Baker's SBU single-game record of 237 yards.

Senior linebacker Joey Maiwmal had 13 tackles (nine solos) and freshman DB Rueban Hartzler added 10 stops (seven solos) for SBU.

The Series & Coaches

This is the 19th meeting between Central Missouri State and Southwest Baptist. The Mules hold the advantage, leading the series 16-2. Southwest Baptist won back-to-back games in 1989 and 1990 (51-21 and 21-18, respectively). Since then, it has been all Mules. Since 1997, the Mules have out-scored SBU 338-97 (an average game score of 42-12)

Willie Fritz is in his ninth season as head coach at Central Missouri State University. He is 66-29 as the Mules' mentor, 48-27 vs. MIAA opponents. His .695 winning percentage is third best in CMSU football history, while his 66 career wins rank second. A 1983 graduate of Pittsburg State, he ranks ninth in the MIAA in career wins, third among active MIAA coaches.

Including four years as head coach at Blinn Junior College, Fritz is 105-34-1 (.75e) as a college head football coach. A member of the National Junior College Athletics Association Hall of Fame, Fritz led the Buccaneers to back-to-back undefeated national titles in 1995 and 1996.

Jack Peavey is in his first year as head coach of the Southwest Baptist Bearcats. 1988 graduate of Jacksonville State, he is 7-29. Prior to taking the reins at Southwest Baptist, Peavey spent three seasons at William Paterson University, going 5-25.

Last year's game

The Central Missouri State University Mules got points from their offense, defense, and special teams in downing Southwest Baptist University 48-21 on Family Day in Warrensburg.

Central Missouri State scored 17 points in both the first and second quarters, and cruised to the win in the second half.

Delanie Walker put the Mules on the board first on a 28-yard scamper off an end-around. He hurdled two defenders on the way to his first rushing touchdown in the Cardinal & Black.

The CMSU defense forced a punt on the Bearcat's next possession. That was all senior wide receiver Jamison Heiskell needed to see, as he burst through the line to record the sixth blocked punt of his career and giving CMSU the ball at the SBU six-yard line. Heiskell's effort tied Mark Peoples' record of six blocked kicks. Peoples set the mark from 1986-90.

After a loss of a yard, Lee Thompson posted his seventh touchdown of the season to make it 14-0, Mules with 8:01 remaining in the first quarter.

Brandon Starks made it 17-0, CMSU, with his 27-yard field goal at the 4:37 mark. SBU got on the board with 1:36 remaining in the period on an eight-yard pass from Robert Clardy to Dewitt Johnson.

Mike Spiegel countered with a one-yard plunge to cap a nine-play, 64-yard drive to start the second quarter. Jimmy Sangster found Jon Books from three-yards out, and Starks nailed a 38-yard field goal with :52 remaining in the half to send the Mules to the locker room with a 34-7 lead.

Clardy made a beautiful read on an option and went 29 yards up the hash marks to make the score 34-14 on SBU's first drive of the second half.

After the Mules and Bearcats traded possessions, a CMSU drive was thwarted by an interception. On SBU's ensuing possession, freshman free safety Kendall Ricketts stepped in front of a Clardy aerial and raced 52-yards to pay-dirt. It was Ricketts' third INT of the day, tying the CMSU single-game record held by three former Mules - Walter Rhone vs. Eastern Illinois in 1972, Ron Barfield vs. Indiana State in 1989, and Billy Jones vs. SBU in 2002.

Clardy cut the margin to 20 points, 41-21 with 8:31 remaining in the contest, but with 3:09, senior wide receiver Jimmy Conner put a dagger in the Bearcats' hearts when he took a short SBU punt in full stride at the Bearcat 33 and raced to the end zone for the final tally.

Southwest Baptist out-gained the Mules, 384-to-303, but CMSU's average starting field position for the game was the Bearcat 46-yard line. Alternating series, Sangster completed 13-of-18 for 127 yards with a touchdown and an interception, while Spiegel was 4-of-6 for 40 yards. Walker had six receptions for 64 yards, rushed thee times for 18 yards and a score, and returned a kickoff 21 yards.

Freshman strong safety Roy Loren had nine tackles, two for losses, while senior linebacker Jason Vanloo had nine stops, including one for negative yards. Senior linebacker Joe Brown finished with six tackles, a pass breakup, and two sacks, and Ricketts tallied three tackles—one for a loss—to go with his three thefts.

The Mules All-Time

Central Missouri State University, now in its 109th season of football competition, is 464-465-51 all-time on the gridiron.

Sophomore tailback Jim Bouknight rushed 10 times for 39 yards and caught two passes for 25 yards at Missouri Western.

This Week in Mules Football

Kendall Ricketts had a team-leading 15 tackles vs. Missouri Western, as the Mules held their third foe of the year under 14 points.

The Mules in the MIAA

Toby Korrodi leads the MIAA in pass efficiency with a rating of 168.6. He is seventh in passing average with 161.6 yards per game, and is 10th in total offense at 154.2 yards per game.

Will Caldwell is seventh in the league in rushing (85.0 ypg) and ninth in all-purpose yards (102.6 ypg).

Delanie Walker is second kick return average (35.7 ypr), is third in receptions per game (4.20 rpg), ranks seventh in receiving yards per game (61.6), and is seventh in all-purpose yards (112.4 ypg). Micah Hefner, meanwhile, is sixth in receiving yards (69.2 ypg).

Matt Frankel is second in the league in punting (39.4 yards per punt), and RoShawn Marshall leads the MIAA in punt return average at 23.2 yards per return (with a league-record three TDs).

Defensively, CMSU has three of the top sackers in the league. Maurice White is first in the league sack per game with five in five outings. Dallas Bryant is eighth (0.60 spg).

Andrew Jilles is tied for first in fumbles recovered with two (0.50 per game), and Kendall Ricketts is fifth in tackles (8.6 per game).

Some Points to Ponder

- ❑ The Mules offensive line has not given up a sack in the past two games. They gave up seven the previous three games.
- ❑ In the Red Zone: The Mules are last in the MIAA in red zone offense, as they have converted 59.1 percent of the time (14-of-23) inside the red zone. They have scored 12 touchdowns (eight rushing, four passing) and kicked two field goals. The Mules have missed two field goals, turned the ball over on downs five times, and gone to the half twice. By comparison, CMSU's opponents are 75 percent from inside the 20, fifth in the MIAA. Mules' foes have been in the red zone 12 times, scoring five TDs and kicking a four field goals.
- ❑ Central Missouri's QBs have shared the wealth this year, hitting 10 different receivers. Eight players have caught five passes or more. Against Missouri Southern, Toby Korrodi hit nine different receivers.
- ❑ Any way you can: The Mules have scored every way but on an interception return or a defensive extra point return this season. CMSU has scored 28 touchdowns, 23 extra points by kick, two two-point conversions, two field goals and a safety.
- ❑ Under head coach Willie Fritz, the Mules are 14-5 following a loss.

A Look at the Mules

~ Quarterback ~

Toby Korrodi leads the MIAA in pass efficiency at 168.6. He also has broken into the league standings in total offense. He had his third straight 200-yard passing game vs. Missouri Western when he threw for 210 yards. He did not, however, have a touchdown pass for the first time this season.

Mike Spiegel strapped on a pair of gloves and played wide receiver for the first time this year at Missouri Western. He was thrown to once, but had the ball batted away.

~ Running Back ~

The Mules seem to have found a serviceable one-two punch in running backs Will Caldwell and Jim Bouknight.

At Missouri Western, Caldwell had 86 yards and a TD on 16 carries, while Bouknight rushed 10 times for 39 yards. Bouknight also caught two passes for 25 yards, and Caldwell added two catches for nine yards.

Jeremy Braden also got into the stats vs. the Griffons, returning two pooch kickoffs 15 yards.

~ Wide Receiver ~

Senior wide out Micah Hefner was named the Mules' Offensive MVP vs. Missouri Western after grabbing six passes for 75 yards. He had five receptions for 32 yards until going 43 yards on the final play of the game.

Delanie Walker kept his streak of catching at least three passes in every game alive by grabbing three balls for 44 yards at Missouri Western.

~ Tight Ends ~

After being shut out in the first two games, the Mules' tight ends have combined for 13 receptions for 106 yards in the last three games.

Zach Zwilling had four receptions vs. Missouri Western, a season best for the Mules' tight ends, while Ted Maxwell, meanwhile, had two receptions for 20 yards. It's the second straight game Maxwell has had at least two receptions and 20 yards.

Further, CMSU's tight ends combined with ...

~ Offensive Line ~

... the offensive line to keep the Mules' quarterback clean for the second straight game. Toby Korrodi and Mike Spiegel have not suffered a sack in the last two games.

As a result, the Mules have completed 44-of-62 passes (70.1 percent) for 511 yards and have rushed 75 times for 343 yards the last two weeks.

~ Cornerbacks ~

Ricky Armstrong had just five tackles in the Mules first four games. He almost doubled that number by making nine tackles (seven solo, two assists) at Missouri Western. He also saved a touchdown by batting a ball away in the end zone.

RoShawn Marshall also made another spectacular special teams play vs. the Griffons. While rushing to block a field goal attempt, Marshall dropped the holder when Western attempted to fake the field goal.

Ricky Armstrong is still recovering from a broken thumb suffered during practice during the Mules' bye week, which means Codi Willard could see his first action vs. Southwest Baptist.

This Week in Mules Football

~ Safeties ~

Free safety Kendall Ricketts had a team season-high 15 tackles vs. Missouri Western, the third-highest total in the MIAA this season, and the top performance by a conference defensive back. He has 43 tackles this year (almost twice as many as Maurice White and Rodrick Washington, who are tied for second with 22 apiece). That is the most by an MIAA defensive back this year.

Andy Hodges has been equally effective rushing the passer or dropping into coverage. He has a team-high four pass breakups on the year, and has three quarterback hurries and a half-sack.

Freshman John Samia has been thrust into duty because of Kellen Nesbitt's ankle injury. In his first action as a college football player, Samia (who came in as a linebacker) had a pass break up and a quarterback hurry. He makes his first start vs. Southwest Baptist.

~ Linebackers ~

Rodrick Washington has started every game at strongside linebacker for CMSU this season, while three players have started on the weakside. He had seven tackles at Missouri Western, and leads the Mules' 'backers with 22.

Adrian Singletary made his first start of the season last weekend and responded with five tackles and a pass breakup. He shares the team-lead with four quarterback hurries.

Jake Weishaar had a season-high six tackles (two solo, four assists) at Western.

~ Defensive Line ~

Senior Danny Tuttle leads the Mules with four pass breakups. He didn't have a lot of tackles in CMSU's first four games, collecting just five stops. But at Missouri Western, he was all over the field, making five tackles (one for a loss), breaking up a pass, and netting a hurry.

Maurice White had a sack vs. Missouri Western, his second straight game with a sack. He is tied for second on the team with 22 tackles (third with 13 solo stops).

As a unit, the Mules collected 16 total stops at Missouri Western.

~ Specialists ~

Take away the 100-yard return they suffered at Washburn, and the Mules kickoff return unit is yielding a miserly 16.9 yards per return.

CMSU, on the other hand is averaging 21.3 yards per return, but has had four players in the second wave (who are not typically expected to return kicks) bring back eight kickoffs 66 yards. The Mules deep men, Delanie Walker and Imani Butler are averaging 35.7 and 30.5 yards per return, respectively.

And through five games, CMSU's foes have one (yes, ONE) punt return for 16 yards. Matt Frankel has had something to do with that, as he is averaging 39.4 yards on 24 punts and has dropped 13 inside the 20.

GAME 1

August 25 * Warrensburg, Mo.

Walton Stadium / Kennedy Field

Attendance: 8,133

Mules 14, Adams State 6

All the talk was about how good the Adams State College defense was going to be. After all, the Grizzlies returned eight starters from a unit that was dubbed the top defense in NCAA Division II.

But on this night, it was the Central Missouri State University defense that reigned supreme, as the Mules stopped Adams State, 14-6.

To be sure, the Adams State defense was impressive, holding the Mules to just 268 yards of total offense (160 rushing, 108 through the air). But CMSU shot itself in the foot plenty, too. Thirteen times in the game the Mules advanced inside Adams State territory. But only once did the offense put points on the board, on a 63-yard Mike Spiegel-to-Micah Hefner aerial.

And, while Adams State racked up 308 yards of total offense (only seven on the ground), the Mules' defense stepped up when it had to in keeping the Grizzlies out of the end zone.

Adams State struck first in the game on a 31-yard Wayne Durham field goal with 6:02 remaining in the opening period.

The Mules struck back when Spiegel and Hefner connected.

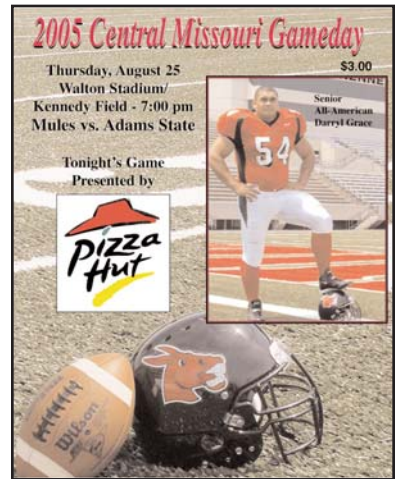

After a scoreless second quarter, Adams State pulled within one, 7-6, on a 22-yard field goal from Durham with 7:57 remaining.

The Mules defense capped the scoring. With the ball on the Adams State six, Grizzlie quarterback Scott Coxon led the center snap go through his hands. The Mules' Dustin Patton fell on the ball in the end zone for the final tally.

Special teams played a huge roll in the game, as sophomore Matt Frankel averaged 40.7 yards on nine punts, but more importantly dropped a school-record seven inside the Grizzlies' 20-yard line. It was Frankel's first game punting for the Mules.

Also making his debut was junior tailback Will Caldwell, who finished with 150 yards on 13 carries. Sophomore Jim Bouknight tacked on 33 yards on just five carries, while Hefner nabbed three passes for 83 yards.

Defensively, the Mules got 11 tackles and two pass breakups from sophomore free safety Kendall Ricketts. Junior defensive end Andrew Jilles added seven stops.

GAME 2

September 1 * Warrensburg, Mo.

Attendance: 7,132

Mules 83, Lincoln 0

It was a game for records. One week after battling Adams State for a 14-6 win, the Central Missouri State University Mules had no trouble disposing of Lincoln University. The Mules (2-0) rolled to an 83-0 win over the Blue Tigers (1-1).

The Mules scored a school record 69 points in the first half (breaking the mark of 58 vs. Sterling College in 2002).

Junior quarterback Mike Spiegel rushed for 111 yards on four carries with three touchdowns, setting a new school record for touchdowns in a game by a quarterback. His 75-yard TD jaunt in the second quarter is believed to be a record for a quarterback as well.

Freshman placekicker Spencer Webb hit 11-of-12 extra points, both new school records.

Senior wide receiver Delanie Walker returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a score, the third of his career, tying the CMSU and MIAA records.

And while it isn't a record, the 83 points hung on the board by the Mules are the most scored by CMSU since it defeated Northeast Missouri State 76-0 in 1914.

It was 27-0 after the first quarter, and then the Mules put 42 points up in the second stanza.

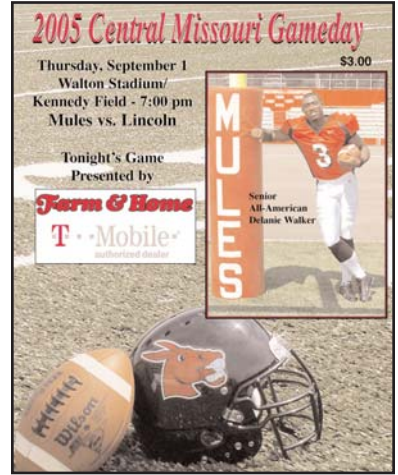

The game was so out-of-hand by the start of the fourth quarter, Fritz ordered Spiegel to take a knee on four consecutive plays to run the clock.

Lincoln came out passing against the Mules' third and fourth teamers and got to the Mules four yard line before its drive stalled. A 27-yard field goal was blocked by RoShawn Marshall to preserve the shutout. Marshall also had a 63-yard punt return for a touchdown, as all three phases produced for the Mules.

In addition to his 111 yards rushing, Spiegel also completed 3-of-4 passes for 63 yards. Junior Toby Korrodi was 5-of-6 for 107 with a pair of TDs. Walker was the primary target, hauling in four passes for 109 yards and a score.

For the defense senior defensive tackle Maurice White had four tackles, including three sacks.

Central Missouri State totaled 542 yards of total offense (372 rushing, 170 passing). Lincoln meanwhile had -44 yards rushing and 144 passing, 72 coming on its final drive of the game.

GAME 3

September 10 * Topeka, Kan.
Yager Stadium at Moore Bowl
Attendance: 5,840

Washburn 42, Mules 27

Big plays and early inconsistent offense cost the Central Missouri State University Mules, as they fell 42-27 to Washburn University last Saturday in Topeka, Kan.

Washburn (3-0, 1-0 MIAA) took the early 7-0 lead when Jordan Brill connected with Mike Odupitan on a 44-yard scoring strike with 7:15 remaining in the first quarter.

The Mules (2-1, 0-1 MIAA) got a safety at the 0:25 mark of the first quarter when Washburn was forced to punt and the low snap went through the legs of punter Curt Massey. Massey alertly booted the ball out the back of the end zone to avoid the CMSU touchdown.

Washburn made the next big play on special teams, as a high snap resulted in punter Matt Frankel being drilled at the 24-yard line. The 'Bods punched it in from the six, with Brill connecting with Jerad Tetuan for the 14-2 lead. And that is how the first half ended.

After stopping the Ichabods on their opening possession of the second half, the Mules caught a break. Washburn again had a problem on the snap, the balling rolling back to the punter. CMSU covered the play and set up shop at the Ichabod 30-yard line. A rush on first down resulted in a loss of three yards, but on second down Will Caldwell bounced outside for 10 yards. He got three on third down to make it first-and-10 from the Ichabod 20, and took it to the 15 one play later. No gain the next two plays made it fourth and six, setting up Spencer Webb's 32-yard attempt. Webb punched it through for the first field goal of his career to make it 14-5 with 8:21 remaining in the third quarter.

Brill hit Cason Lehman from 19 yards out with 2:22 remaining in the third quarter to put Washburn up 21-5. The four-play, 26-yard drive was set up when Mike Spiegel was intercepted by Ichabod defensive tackle Nick Bull. Spiegel had his tight end, Zach Zwilling wide open in the middle of the field and threw a perfect strike, but Bull had dropped back in pursuit and stepped in front of the pass.

The Mules responded two plays later, as Toby Korrodi scrambled to his left and hit Micah Hefner crossing the middle to the right. Hefner picked up a block from Delanie Walker at about the Washburn 30 and finished the 81-yard play for the touchdown. The two-point conversion pass from Korrodi to Walker made it 21-13, Washburn.

But Washburn had an answer of its own. Fletcher Terrell caught the ensuing kickoff two yards deep in the end zone, and when he stopped running 102 yards later, it was 27-13, Ichabods.

Ra'Shawn Mosley added a 25-yard touchdown run with 8:51 remaining in the game to cap a 10-play, 90-yard drive for a 35-13 Washburn lead with 8:51 left.

Korrodi capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive at the 4:44 mark when he connected with Caldwell from 10 yards out on fourth and goal. The two-point conversion was no good, making it 35-19, Washburn.

When the on-side kick attempt failed, Washburn set up at the CMSU 41 yard line. Trent Hearn darted around left end 39 yards on second and eight to make it 42-19 with 4:00 remaining.

But the Mules would not go away. An eight-play, 80-yard CMSU drive ended when Korrodi and Walker connected on a 16-yard touchdown pass, and Korrodi and Hefner clicked on the two-point conversion, making it 42-27 with 2:08 to go. But when the ensuing on-side kick failed, all the 'Bods had to do was run out the clock.

Washburn out-gained the Mules 360 yards to 315. Korrodi finished the game going 17-of-25 for 215 yards and three touchdowns. Caldwell had 126 all-purpose yards (72 rushing on 21 carries and 54 on seven receptions).

Sophomore free safety Kendall Ricketts had a team-leading nine tackles, followed by junior linebacker Glentrelle Ware with seven.

Mules 69, Truman 17

Consider it a coming out party for junior quarterback Toby Korrodi and junior cornerback RoShawn Marshall. The two were key players in Central Missouri State's 69-17 win over Truman State University.

Korrodi was brilliant in the first half, completing 15-of-17 (with one drop) for 233 yards and four touchdowns. He finished the day 19-of-24 for 267 yards with four TDs, and didn't see the field in the fourth quarter.

Marshall brought back four punts 127 yards with touchdown returns of 63 and 57 yards. That tied the record set by Kevin Nickerson in 2000 vs. Quincy. It was also Marshall's third TD return of the season, tying Nickerson's record back in 2000.

The Mules jumped to a quick 13-0 lead in the first eight minutes. Korrodi connected with Delanie Walker from 27 yards out to cap a seven-play, 74-yard drive on CMSU's opening kickoff. After a Truman fumble, the Mules needed just four plays to cover 40 yards. Will Caldwell covered the final four yards, but Spencer Webb's extra point attempt was not good.

Truman, though, was not about to go quietly. With 4:44 left in the opening period Jerard Levenson dashed 12 yards to finish a nine-play, 67-yard drive to close within six, 13-7. They got closer just moments later when Imani Butler fumbled the ensuing kickoff at the CMSU 41. The Mules defense stiffened, though and gave up just two yards. Marc Kamphoefner nailed a 49-yard field goal to make it 13-10.

But Central Missouri tacked on a pair of touchdowns—on a 53-yard pass from Korrodi to Micah Hefner and a Jim Bouknight seven-yard run—in the final two minutes of the first quarter.

The pace slowed somewhat in the second quarter. Truman struck first with Levenson hauling in a 14-yard pass from Jonathan Duffy to make it 27-17, CMSU.

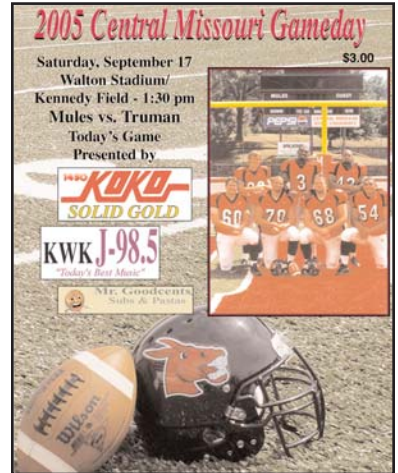

The Mules, though, scored 42 unanswered points to put the game away. Korrodi hit Caldwell from three yards out and tight end Zach Zwilling on an eight yard TD pass, and Bouknight got his second rushing touchdown on a one yard plunge before the half ended.

Neither team scored in the first 12:25 of the second half before Marshall brought back consecutive punts for scores. Julian Batts got the final score of the game on a one-yard dive with 6:21 left in the contest.

The 69 points were the third-most scored by CMSU vs. an MIAA opponent.

Caldwell finished with 75 yards on 15 carries and caught four passes for 14 yards. Walker had seven receptions for 99 yards, and Hefner had three grabs for 80 yards.

Senior Andy Hodges and linebacker Adrian Singletary had seven tackles each, as the Mules tallied six sacks. Defensive end Andrew Jilles had five stops—including the first three of the game—with a sack and two fumble recoveries.

Missouri Western 13, Mules 10

Coming into their game with Missouri Western, the Central Missouri State University Mules knew they had to hold onto the football. And for three quarters, they did just that. But two fumbles in the final 15 minutes cost Central Missouri, as it fell 13-10 to the Griffons.

The Mules (3-2, 1-2 MIAA) carried a 10-0 lead into the intermission. After a scoreless first quarter, CMSU finally got on the scoreboard on a Will Caldwell 25-yard burst up the middle with 8:00 to play in the half. That drive capped a three-play, 34-yard drive that was set up when Missouri Western (4-2, 2-2 MIAA) was forced to punt from its own following a Maurice White sack.

The Griffons went three-and-out on their next possession and were forced to punt from their own 35. It looked like CMSU would get great field position, but MWSU punter Jay White blasted a 64-yarder that rolled dead on the Mules one.

No problem. Junior quarterback Toby Korrodi coolly led Central Missouri on a 15-play drive covering 86 yards and eating eight minutes. When the drive stalled at Western's 13, freshman Spencer Webb booted a 30-yard field goal into the wind for the halftime lead. Korrodi was 7-of-9 for 65 yards on the drive.

The Griffons closed the gap to 10-3 with a field goal on its first drive of the second half. After the Mules were forced to punt, Western used seven plays to cover 45 yards. From there, Robbie Walling hit a 31-yard field goal.

On its third possession, Western tried some trickery. When a seven-play, 45-yard drive stalled at the Mules' 12-yard line, Coach Jerry Partridge called for a fake field goal. RoShawn Marshall, though, sniffed out the play while rushing the kick and dropped White (the holder) to thwart the attempt.

Western was forced to punt on its next possession, but the ball bounced up and hit senior wide receiver Delanie Walker. Western recovered, and needed just four plays to cover 36 yards. Jeremiah White got the final 12 yards for the score. With the PAT it was 10-10 with 5:17 remaining.

After watching the Griffons' fake field goal fail, Central Missouri decided to try some chicanery of its own. On second-and-13, Korrodi threw complete to Imani Butler. Butler tried the old hook-and-ladder play, but his pitch to Caldwell was off the mark and Missouri Western's Siraj Mohammad recovered at the CMSU 36. The Griffons gained 26 yards on eight plays, with freshman Robbie Walling nailing the 27-yard field goal for the 13-10 lead.

CMSU had a chance. On third and three, Korrodi hit Micah Hefner on a 43-yard catch and run. Western was playing a prevent defense, though, and Brad Kester brought Hefner down at the Western 15 as the clock ran out.

Korrodi finished 23-for-35 for 210 yards and Caldwell had 86 yards on 16 carries. Hefner finished with six receptions for 75 yards.

Sophomore free safety Kendall Ricketts had 15 tackles in the game. Senior cornerback Ricky Armstrong added nine stops and a pass breakup.
