

National Qualifier Cory Bloodgood was second on the team with 26 wins in 2007-08.

The Central Missouri Mules wrestling team had an up-and-down 2007-08 season. The Mules once again wrestled one of the toughest schedules in the country including nine dual meets against nationally-ranked opponents and a spot in the prestigious NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals.

The Mules finished the season 6-6 in dual meets and qualified eight wrestlers for the national tournament, the most since UCM qualified nine in the 2000-2001 season. UCM registered dual meet victories over four nationally-ranked opponents and four of the six losses were to Top 10 teams. The Mules had a tough national tournament coming away with one All-American, senior Jeremy Hudson at 184 pounds, and finishing out of the Top 20 for the second consecutive year with a 29th place finish.

Hudson qualified for the national finale with a third place finish at the NCAA-II Midwest Regional in Indianapolis, Indiana. Seven other Mules finished in the top four to qualify for the national meet and a total of nine Mules earned All-Region honors for placing in the top six. Caleb Hulse at 125, Cory Bloodgood at 141, Vince Bertucci at 157, Jesse Sheets at 165, Travis Barbarick at 174, Hudson, Kevin Domian at 197 and Cody Beck at HWT all placed in the top four and qualified for the NCAA Championships in Cedar Rapids, Iowa with Grant Baker at 141 also earning All-Region honors. As a team the Mules finished third at the Midwest Regional, just 3.5 points out of second place and head coach Robin Erslund was honored as the Midwest Region Coach of the Year.

The Mules had one champion and 10 placewinners at the Roger Denker Open and seven placewinners at the Nebraska-Kearney Open.

UCM had two placewinners at the always tough Division I Missouri Open and five placewinners at the Simpson College Invitational where the Mules placed sixth out of 17 teams.

The Mules also had two placewinners at the 33rd annual Central Missouri Open and three placers at the Midwest Classic in Indianapolis, Indiana.

In all, the Mules had eight wrestlers with at least 15 wins and five topped the 20-win mark. With four returning National Qualifiers and a slew of other young talent the future looks bright for the Central Missouri Mules wrestling team.

Note: The Mules competed in the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Association (until the league discontinued a wrestling championship) from 1966-1986. In the 21-year history of the league, Central Missouri won more MIAA titles than any other school, claiming or sharing eight MIAA crowns. The Mules also finished second seven times.
