FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Circle Art Dedication Friday, October 4, 2013

Warrensburg, Mo. (September 30, 2013) – The Warrensburg Arts Commission will officially dedicate the installation of the artwork titled "Downtown Vibrations," design by John Sunami, at the site located in the 10-foot circle in the sidewalk on West Pine Street, during the First Friday Art Walk this Friday, October 4, at 5:45 p.m.

Arts Commissioners, city officials and members of the Art in Public Places Committee will be on hand for the dedication and the placement of the Title Bricks for what is one of the first city-commissioned public works of art in Warrensburg.

Other activities at the First Friday Art Walk in downtown Warrensburg include:

- Local artist Janet Bonsall unveiling the poster of her photographs titled "Historic Doors of Warrensburg" at 6 p.m. at Rudy's Frame Shop located at 122 West Pine Street. The poster will showcase historic local doors from homes and buildings in Warrensburg. All proceeds from the sale of "Historic Doors of Warrensburg" posters go to Warrensburg Main Street, Inc. The money raised will be put back into the community and used to support downtown businesses with grants, beautification projects and Warrensburg Main Street's Day of Caring.
- Live Polka Music 5-7 p.m. on West Pine Street. Shake a Leg!
- Wanda H. Bellamy will be the featured artist at Old Drum Gallery with a reception from 5-8 p.m. The gallery will remain open until after 9 p.m.
- Peggy Howe Brown will be at the Old Drum Gallery signing her book "Halloween Ball."
- And make sure to pick up your Art Walk Passport at Old Drum Gallery & Trading Company located at 128 North Holden, where Witches in the Window will be featured, and Henrietta the Fortune Teller will be reading paws for a good cause for the CARR No Kill Shelter.

Join us for an evening of art, music, food and great shopping at the First Friday Art Walk this Friday, October 4, 5-9 p.m. in downtown Warrensburg.
