PROGRAM NOTES

Portent
A portent is an omen that signifies something disastrous is about to happen, which basically describes the dismal sounds of this particular piece. This piece was written to describe the calamitous overtones of theoretical existential threats.

Parity
Parity is the state of being even or odd. It was written in honor of a visual novel called Katawa Shoujo. It tells the story of a boy with heart arrhythmia being sent to a school of physically impaired students in which he chooses a path of true love. This theme is centered around an enigmatic, armless artist named Rin Tezuka, in which she uses her feet to create art in a way that makes her feel whole.

Endeavors
Endeavors is a three-movement piece that conveys three stages of a person trying to break free from loneliness in efforts to find true love.

I. Rue
Rue is the first stage of desire, in which previous endeavors of finding love are all for naught. A feeling of regret, despair, and sorrow envelops this stage.

II. Persist
Persist is the second stage of desire. This is the stage of pursuing love, whether or not this pursuit is successful is left to the pursuer.

III. Inamorata
Inamorata is the final stage of desire, in which love is achieved. While it can be achieved, it’s about preserving that happiness as well, otherwise the first stage will take form once more.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I, Nicklas Bohannon would like to thank all of the students, alumni, and faculty alike of the University of Central Missouri for making this final concert possible, including Christian Chavez and Alex Goldwasser for being in charge of the technological side of my concert! I’d like to thank Dr. Alex Smith, Dr. Isaac Bickmore, Dr. John Check, Dr. David Aaberg, Dr. Jeff Kaiser, and the many other UCM Music faculty for not only teaching, but for being positive role models for all four years of my experience here in order to become a Bachelor of Music Performance. I’d also like to thank my parents for giving me the push I need in order to succeed in college, and to completely finish what I’ve started. The unconditional support of everyone I’ve met along the travels of my life makes me who I am today, and I am truly grateful for it. May the future look bright for all who attempt to pursue their hopes and dreams in the University of Central Missouri.
