

Admissions Requirements Play Therapy Education Sequence

Admissions Criteria (must meet one of the criteria below):

- 1) Currently enrolled in a master's or higher mental health discipline degree program (clinical mental health counseling, school counseling, social work, psychology, marriage and family therapy, or psychiatry) with successful completion of graduate level coursework in child development, theories of personality, principles of psychotherapy, and ethics

OR

- 2) Hold a master's or higher degree from a mental health discipline program (clinical mental health counseling, school counseling, social work, psychology, marriage and family therapy, or psychiatry) with successful completion of graduate level coursework in child development, theories of personality, principles of psychotherapy, and ethics

Applicants are required to submit one of the following application forms prior to enrollment:

- A) Full Application Packet for the Play Therapy Education Sequence
 - For students intending to take more than one course in the sequence
 - Provides 'Full Acceptance' status
 - Full Application Instructions and Form can be found at:
www.ucmo.edu/playtherapy

OR

- B) Preliminary Application Form for the Play Therapy Education Sequence
 - For students who intend to take only one course in the sequence (Practicum courses require Full Application)

OR

 - For students who are in-process of completing the Full Application packet and would like to request instructor approval to enroll in a course prior to receiving 'Full Acceptance' status
 - Provides 'Preliminary Acceptance' status
 - Preliminary Application Instructions and Form can be found at:
www.ucmo.edu/playtherapy