

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN
JEFFERSON COLLEGE AND
UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL MISSOURI FOR
ASSOCIATE OF APPLIED SCIENCE in APPRENTICESHIP TRAINING
TO UCM's BAS APPLIED TECHNOLOGY MANAGEMENT

This articulation agreement (agreement) is made and entered into by and between Jefferson College and the University of Central Missouri (UCM). By this agreement, Jefferson College and the University of Central Missouri express their mutual commitment to increasing opportunities for student access and success in higher education. As set forth below, this agreement will allow for seamless transfer of students from Jefferson College to the University of Central Missouri (UCM) in the Associate of Applied Science in Apprenticeship Training program to UCM's BAS Applied Technology Management program (the programs also referred to herein as the "programs of study").

This agreement sets forth the conditions for such seamless transfer as specified in the attached programs of study (Attachment A). Students who successfully complete the stated curriculum at Jefferson College will be assured that the University of Central Missouri will accept these credits and apply them to the BAS Applied Technology Management degree program, provided students meet all University of Central Missouri admission criteria. Program guides and requirements will be reviewed annually or as appropriate and may be added or removed at the sole discretion of the University of Central Missouri.

Term/Termination:

This agreement takes effect during the Fall semester of 2027 and will be reviewed annually. The agreement is in effect for 3 years. This agreement may be terminated by either party upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the other party. The agreement will terminate at the end of the succeeding semester upon notification. Upon termination, students may complete transfers that have currently been submitted or are in process.

Confidential Student Information:

Both during the term of this agreement and thereafter, the parties agree to hold student Confidential Information in trust and confidence and to exercise diligence in protecting and safeguarding such information, as well as any other information protected from public disclosure by federal or state law. Each party covenants and agrees it will not knowingly use, directly or indirectly, for its own benefit, or for the benefit of another, any of said Confidential Information, but instead will use said information only for the purposes contemplated hereunder. Further, each party covenants and agrees that it will not disclose any confidential Information to any third party except as may be required in the course of the Program hereunder, for a legitimate educational purpose, or as otherwise permitted by law.

FERPA Compliance:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties will share student records only as permitted by law. The parties acknowledge that all student records arising pursuant to this Agreement are confidential and that such confidentiality shall be maintained by the parties. Each party further acknowledges that all information received, including but not limited to, student progress in a program, financial aid awards, academic records, and participation in party-sponsored programs, if any, is protected under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1232g, ("FERPA"), and each party agrees that disclosure of such information will be made only in compliance with FERPA.

Liability:

Each party to this agreement shall be solely responsible for any and all actions, suits, damages, liability, or other proceedings brought against it as a result of the alleged negligence, misconduct, error, or omission of any of its officers, agents, or employees.

Contractual Provisions Attachment:

Both parties acknowledge and agree to the terms and conditions set forth in "Contractual Provisions Attachment", (Form DA-146a, Rev. 07-19), which is attached hereto, incorporated herein by this reference and made a part of this Agreement.

No Indemnification:

Neither party is obligated to indemnify the other or hold the other party harmless from costs or expenses incurred as a result of such claims.

No Waiver:

The foregoing provisions shall not be deemed a relinquishment or waiver of any kind of applicable limitations of liability provided or available to any of the parties under applicable state governmental immunities law.

Notice:

Each party shall give written notice to the other party of the assertion of any claim or the commencement of any litigation within thirty (30) days notice of the claim or commencement of litigation and shall cooperate with the other party in the defense of the claim or litigation.

Limitation of Authority:

The rights, powers, and authority of both parties are subject to the following conditions and limitations: (1) neither party shall have the authority to perform any act on behalf of the other except as expressly authorized in this agreement or otherwise expressly authorized in writing; (2) without the approval of the other party, neither party will authorize or obligate the expenditure of any funds or create any liability or expense for the other party; and (3) any contracts or obligations between the parties will require the signatures of both parties.

Jefferson College and the University of Central Missouri enter into this program articulation agreement, leading from the Associate of Applied Science in Apprenticeship Training degree to the Bachelor of Applied Science in Applied Technology Management, for which program guides have been developed by the affixing signatures of the appropriate officers of both institutions having authority to sign.
