WELCOME

Welcome to the University of Central Missouri, and congratulations to all graduates, their families and friends in celebration of this special day. While we continue to work amid COVID-19, we have made adjustments in the ceremony to help support a healthy environment. Graduates will receive instructions on the floor, and we ask that all others in attendance please observe signs placed throughout the building related to social distancing, wearing masks/face coverings and other ways to help prevent the spread of coronavirus. Following the ceremony, we will be dismissing graduates/guests by rows and areas. Families and friends should meet their graduate outside the Multipurpose Building, and everyone should exit the building after the ceremony so that there is time to clean and prepare for the following commencement exercises. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause, and thank you for your cooperation as we all work together to make this commencement a great experience for all at UCM.

PLEASE NOTE

While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of this program, printing deadlines and other factors sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names or may result in publication of names of individuals who have not completed graduation requirements. This program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's official academic or degree status, and the university makes no representations as such and further reserves all rights to amend, alter or delete the contents of this program at any time.

CHARNO AWARDS

The Charno Award is presented annually to the top male and female citizens of the University of Central Missouri. The honor is named after George Charno, Sr., a Kansas City attorney who established the award in 1940 to recognize the two outstanding members of the senior class. Selection is based on a combination of criteria, which include: leadership, scholarship, character, involvement in campus organizations and extracurricular activities, service to the university, and involvement in one's academic department. Announced during the Spring 2020 semester, this year's recipients are Cole Fine, Olathe, Kansas, and Hannah Breedlove, Lee's Summit, Missouri.

Cole Fine

Cole Fine is the son of Jay and Michelle Fine, Overland Park, Kansas, and a graduate of Blue Valley Northwest High School. Graduating Magna Cum Laude, he majored in political science with a concentration in public law and theory, with a minor in legal studies.

Throughout his education at UCM, Fine was active in a variety of leadership activities, including the Student Government Association (SGA), where he began his service as a senator, then progressed up the leadership ladder to become vice president and president. While involved in The Honors College, his capstone project entailed a bioethical analysis of a student health fee, which SGA ultimately proposed while he was serving as president, and was approved by the Board of Governors.

Fine was active in Sigma Pi fraternity and served on the Judicial Board that oversees UCM Greek Life. He promoted student involvement in the democratic process as a student coordinator for the American Democracy Project, served as a freshman orientation leader, academic resource coach, and on numerous university committees and advisory boards. He also received recognition through the Young Family Scholarship honoring a political science student and was named to the Dean's List each semester that he attended UCM.

Hannah Breedlove

Hannah Breedlove, daughter of Brent and Lena Breedlove, Lee's Summit, is a Summa Cum Laude graduate with a bachelor's degree in Child and Family Development and a minor in psychology. She came to UCM in 2016 after earning her high school diploma at Lee's Summit West High School.

Breedlove worked in Academic Advising as a Success Coach for approximately three years, and in 2019 was promoted to Senior Success Coach, where she began training other Success Coaches. She served as a Peer Advisor for Career Services, and a teaching assistant for multiple courses on campus. These include the University Foundations and Exploring Majors course for the Open Options program and the Career Readiness course through Career Services. She earned Peer Educator Certification through the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators.

On her way to completing her education at UCM, Breedlove worked as a student assistant in University Housing, served as a Mule Team leader, student ambassador, orientation leader, and was president and vice president of UCM's Society for Child and Family Development. A testament to her academic dedication, Breedlove was a nominee for the Learning to a Greater Degree Award in 2018 and nominee for the Student Employee of the Year Award in 2019. She made the Dean's List every semester and was awarded the Harmon College of Business and Professional Studies' Child and Family Development Student of the Year Scholarship last year.

BYLER DISTINGUISHED FACULTY AWARD

Named after William H. Byler, an inventor, author and teacher who graduated from UCM in 1927, the Byler Distinguished Faculty Award is the highest recognition bestowed upon UCM faculty members. Byler established an endowment fund to provide annual recognition for distinguished faculty performance, evidenced by teaching, scholarly, or creative activity, and professional service. This year's recipient is Dr. Dawna Lisa (Buchanan) Butterfield, professor of literacy education and English language learning

Dr. Dawna Lisa (Buchanan) Butterfield

Dr. Dawna Lisa (Buchanan) Butterfield is a UCM faculty member who has demonstrated outstanding achievement over a long, sustained period of time as a professor of literacy education and English language learning in the School of Teaching and Learning. Her colleagues say she embodies the true spirit of faculty service through her experiences in intensive graduate advising, leadership for a student organization, and contributions made to the institution through service on committees at the university, college and departmental levels. She is also recognized as a "great model for faculty service" possessing characteristics related to student mentorship and instruction that led to previous honors such as the Excellence in Teaching and Distinguished Faculty Awards in the College of Education, as well as the Missouri Governor's Award for Excellence in Education in 2015.

After growing up in Canada, Butterfield has enjoyed a career in education that spans more than 30 years, including nearly 25 years spent at UCM. In addition to devoting much of her time serving in the classroom, for approximately five years, beginning in 2012, she served as chair of the Department of Educational Foundations and Literacy, and coordinated the Literacy Education program. To pursue her longstanding passion for teaching, she returned to the classroom where her major assignments continue to be in literacy education. Throughout her tenure at UCM, Butterfield has been a strong advocate for a program that helps teach students who want to serve in the classroom how to instruct K-12 students who are learning to speak English. Her work in this area has included developing and designing a new introductory course on English Language Learners and Culturally Responsive Pedagogy to meet new Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education requirements across all teacher education programs.

Butterfield has always demonstrated a strong commitment to engaged learning and future-focused academics. This is evident through previous work that included design and revision of online courses and through training in Quality Matters online design, which provided her knowledge of best practices in online course development. She was active in developing a new Educational Foundations Core, which was adopted by the College of Education Teacher Education Council in 2014.

In addition to her record of scholastic work that includes research and publications, she has helped foster a culture of service at UCM through her volunteerism. This includes participation in the annual Children's Literature Festival which brings thousands of young people and their teachers to campus, and establishing a student group, Leading Educator Advocates for Diversity (LEAD).

GOVERNOR'S AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION

The Governor's Award for Excellence in Education is an annual recognition initiative established by the Missouri Coordinating Board for Higher Education. In recognizing honorees, the awards program considers criteria such as effective teaching, effective advising, innovative course design and delivery, service to the university community, commitment to high standards of excellence and success in nurturing student achievement. This year's award goes to a faculty member in the Harmon College of Business and Professional Studies, Dr. Dan Jensen.

Dr. Dan Jensen

Dr. Dan Jensen joined UCM in 2014 as an associate professor of management in the Harmon College of Business and Professional Studies (HCBPS). In addition to teaching, he currently coordinates the Entrepreneurship and Social Enterprise Program and serves as director of the Master's in Business Administration (MBA) Program.

During the past five years at UCM, Jensen has integrated a number of practices into his teaching that have impacted the way students respond to him, and the way he feels about being in the classroom. This includes team-based learning, experiential learning, flipped classroom, and the integration of extracurricular activities into the learning process.

While serving as administrative coordinator and instructor for the Entrepreneurship and Social Enterprise major, Jensen recognized the need for entrepreneurship students to have outside-the-classroom experiences to enhance learning. To provide these opportunities for students, he garnered support from the HCBPS dean and the management department chair to establish UCM's Big Idea Program in fall 2016. The initial program consisted of a day-long conference, which brought high-caliber regional entrepreneurs and business professionals to campus to mentor students. This event has since expanded into the monthly Big Idea Speaker Series sponsored by the Blaine Whitworth Foundation; the Big Idea Pitch Competition each fall, and the Big Idea Business Plan Competition in the spring.

Jensen has also been active in service at UCM on many different fronts. Among such efforts, he served on the School of Business Administration's (SoBA) Strategic Planning Committee, he has worked as an advisor for the UCM Collegiate DECA Team, and with the loss of the Small Business and Technology Development Center in 2017, he has increasingly become a resource for aspiring entrepreneurs. Additionally, he has led the UCM Strategic Enrollment Management Task Force with the goal of engaging and aligning all members of the campus community in operationalizing their enrollment management plans and sharing best practices.

Prior to joining UCM, Jensen worked for Rockhurst University in Kansas City as an adjunct and full-time faculty member from 2002-2014. His professional career also includes working as a researcher on rapid-growth entrepreneurship at the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation, as well as consulting for ESI International, a global training firm, where he facilitated learning experiences for the Fuji-Xerox Leadership Institute in Japan. His engagement with ESI also took him across the United States to work for Cisco Systems, MetLife, NATO, the U.S. Department of Defense, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and other major corporations, nonprofits and governmental agencies.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The University of Central Missouri's Presidential Medallion was introduced during the inauguration ceremony for UCM's 16th president Dr. Roger J. Best on April 18, 2019. Designed by staff in the Office of Integrated Marketing and Communications, the nickel silver, antique finish medallion features as the central focal piece, a three-inch in diameter round medal that includes the university's academic logo with the year of the institution's founding in 1871, and the motto "Education for Service." Other components include two 1.5-inch diameter university seals, and curved banners that are linked together and list the names of each university president who served the institution since its founding and their years of service. The medallion is to be worn at ceremonial functions, including commencement ceremonies.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace was designed and produced for the inauguration of Dr. Ed Elliott as president in 1985.

As a historical note, maces were first used during Roman times. The first mace was a weapon-like staff, composed of a group of reeds surrounding an axe. Mace bearers would walk in front of the person in authority. Maces were later used in England, again as symbols of authority in the court systems. The staff was carried by a judge or transported for him by a mace bearer. As the American court system developed from the English courts, the mace also became a symbol of authority in America.

The University of Central Missouri's mace is made of native walnut and bronze, and is topped with a somewhat stylized flame, which, like light, stands for truth and knowledge. Beneath the flame are inlaid disks of cardinal and black, the university colors. Continuing down the mace, a large sphere is decorated with carvings of major buildings on campus. Holding the ball are simple finger-like formations, which stand for service. The reeding, or half-columns, on the mace symbolizes tradition in education and togetherness – small parts working together to support the whole. Bronze books and mortarboards with tassels are symbols of academia and education, and bronze casts of Missouri represent UCM's home state and the citizens it serves. The handle of the mace is spiraled, which denotes growth and progression. The mace, completed with a hand-rubbed oil finish, weighs approximately 14 pounds.

The base for the staff is bronze and weighs close to 20 pounds. It is adorned with centennial medallions and Missouri mules in harness, denoting the reliable, workaday university mascot.

When not used for ceremonial purposes, the mace stands in its base in the Office of the President. The University Mace is carried at ceremonial functions by the university marshal, who precedes the university president in the processional. By tradition at the University of Central Missouri, the university marshal is the president of the Faculty Senate.

The construction of the mace was a team effort. Board of Regents member Edna Mae Whitsitt contacted Rich Monson of the Art Department for design assistance. Monson developed several designs, and a committee consisting of Ophelia Gilbert, Alice Gower, Monson, Norma Van Zee, and Whitsitt selected the design to be used. Jack Landers, faculty member in the Department of Manufacturing and Construction, built the walnut core of the mace. Monson and Richard Allman, Art Department, cast and assembled the bronze pieces. Robert Tompkins, Department of Physical Education, carved the frieze, and Joseph Albrecht, Manufacturing and Construction, fashioned a bronze stem to join a base that was cast by Monson and George Sample, Art Department. Additional assistance was provided by art faculty members Jerry Miller, Harold Reynolds and Billi Rothove.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia of robe and hood are believed to have had their beginnings at the English universities of Oxford and Cambridge during the 12th and 13th centuries. The hoods are a carryover from the times when the monks, who operated the universities, wore them to protect their shaved heads in winter or to collect alms when worn as shoulder capes.

Use of the academic robe came to the United States in 1754 with the founding of what is now Columbia University. In 1895, a commission of university officials adopted a universal code of design and color for academic garb. It has undergone various revisions, the latest in 1960. Styling of robes varies for the bachelor's, master's, education specialist and doctoral degrees and the width of border and length of hood increase with the type of degree. The color of the velvet border of the hood indicates the field of study, while the lining designates the colors of the institution granting the degree. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is worn closed. The gown for the master's degree and the education specialist degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist with the rear part of its oblong shape square cut and the front part with an arc cutaway. It may be worn open or closed.

The doctoral gown is faced with black velvet and has three bars across the bell-shaped sleeves. These facings and crossbars may be of colored velvet to represent the degree, and agree in color with the binding or edging of the hood. The tassel for the cap may be of gold thread.

THE HONORS COLLEGE

Students in The Honors College engage in high-impact learning in a collegial environment that adds significant value to their academic and social experience at UCM. Specifically, Honors College students pursue a rigorous course of study that includes small-sized, honors-only general education courses and interdisciplinary colloquia, as well as a minimum of two semesters of a foreign language. All Honors College students are also required to collaborate closely with a faculty mentor on a capstone undergraduate research or creative project in their respective areas of academic expertise. The second oldest program of its kind west of the Mississippi, UCM's Honors College program began in 1958 with just 12 students. Today's graduates of The Honors College thus become part of a long tradition of education for excellence and service at the University of Central Missouri.

RECOGNITION OF ARMY ROTC DISTINGUISHED MILITARY GRADUATES

Recognition as an ROTC Distinguished Military Graduate is an honor given only to those cadets named among the top 20 percent of individuals on the U.S. Army Cadet Command's National Order of Merit List. The command, located at Fort Knox, Kentucky, is the only authorized entity to select these commissioned officers. This achievement is also the only accomplishment that carries over for a commissioned officer into his/her professional military record and is an indicator of academic achievement to future promotion boards. The cadet's cumulative GPA, success on the Army Physical Fitness Test, completion of the ROTC's Senior Division Advanced Course, community service, and graduation with a baccalaureate degree are considered for this honor. UCM's Distinguished Military Graduates are:

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL MISSOURI ALMA MATER

Words by Mrs. Carole Grainger Gilbody, Music by Dr. William S. Stoney

UCM stands proud and noble,
Serving all who ask,
In the center of the nation
Joyful in her task;
Red and black her colors fly;
Faith and vision, dreams unite
Leading all who look for truth
To hold her honor bright,
Our beloved alma mater,
Hail to UCM.

UCM the chimes are calling,
Hear their joyful sound,
In our hearts their echoes falling,
While we gather 'round,
Striving on with purpose clear,
Loyal to the school we love,
Let us never falter
While your banner flies above,
Our beloved alma mater,
Hail to UCM.
