The University of Central Missouri is now offering the world-famous Dale Carnegie Courses® at convenient locations around the world. Whether you are an Active Duty, Reservist, National Guard, or Veteran these programs will help you achieve your educational goals and career objectives.

The University of Central Missouri is an approved institution for GI Bill and Tuition Assistance Funding and offers a wide variety of degrees. The Dale Carnegie® Course (COMM 2700) qualifies as a General Education course for degrees at UCM. The Management, Sales, and Presentations courses are available as elective credit toward your degree. Credits for the Dale Carnegie® courses are transferable to other colleges and universities. To enroll or request information, please contact your local Dale Carnegie® representative or the University of Central Missouri - School of Graduate and Extended Studies at 877-SAY-UCMO Ext. 24 or visit us on the web at http://www.ucmo.edu/dalecarnegie/

The University of Central Missouri is a leader in program - specific accreditations through numerous national associations and is fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.