CURTIS, HARTLEY, PARNELL AND WHEELER CAMPUS LEADERSHIP AWARD

Established 1985

The Curtis, Hartley, Parnell and Wheeler Campus Leadership Award is available through the University of Central Missouri Foundation and shall be awarded to a student pursuing a degree in communication at UCM. The recipient shall be selected for his/her outstanding service and/or performance in the Department of Communication. This scholarship is made possible by way of a gift from Mr. David M. Wheeler, ’79, of Overland Park, Kansas.

BACKGROUND:
This award was established to recognize and publicly applaud, and so encourage excellence and achievement in leadership among students in the Department of Communication at the University of Central Missouri. Emphasis for selection is based upon creativity, scholarship and leadership in campus and community activities.

SELECTION PROCESS:

1. The recipient(s) of the Curtis, Hartley, Parnell and Wheeler Campus Leadership Award will be recommended by the selection committee designated by the Chair, Department of Communication. Recipient(s) shall be approved by the UCM Scholarships and Awards Officer.

2. The Selection Committee, with the approval of the Executive Director of the Foundation, will annually establish the number and scholarship amount. In a given year, the Selection Committee may exercise the option of making no selection.
