Information for the
DR. ROBERT STEWART C-MENC SCHOLARSHIP

Recipients of the Dr. Robert Stewart C-MENC Scholarship shall be selected through an essay competition. Applicants shall submit a 500-word statement on a topic to be determined annually by the Executive Board of C-MENC.

The essays shall be judged, in a blind reading, by a panel of three (3) members of the music faculty (who shall be identified by the Executive Board of C-MENC), and a non-competing Executive Board member of C-MENC Chapter #169.

The person assigning the numbers to essay entries for the ‘blind reading’ shall not be competing nor be a reader in the essay competition.

The Scholarship shall be awarded to the C-MENC member who is judged the winner of the essay competition.

The annual selection process shall take place during the spring semester with the scholarship presentation made at the April C-MENC meeting. The deadline for acceptance of essay shall be March 1 of each year.

The recipient(s) of this scholarship shall be a full-time student in good academic standing at UCM who is a music education major. The recipient(s) shall have a minimum 2.5 overall GPA and shall be an active, participating member of C-MENC Chapter #169. Recipient(s) shall have been a member of C-MENC for at least one semester to be eligible for the scholarship.

The president of C-MENC and the Chair, Department of Music, shall annually be responsible for providing the UCM Scholarships and Awards Officer with the name of the recipient(s) each year.
