Information for the

HUGH B. AND PHYLLIS E. WILLIAMS
ORCHESTRA CONCERTMASTER SCHOLARSHIP

The Hugh B. and Phyllis E. Williams Orchestra Concertmaster Scholarship is available through the University of Central Missouri Foundation for an undergraduate student designated as concertmaster in the UCM Symphony Orchestra. This scholarship is made possible by way of gifts from former students and friends of Hugh B. Williams.

SCHOLARSHIP BACKGROUND:

Hugh B. Williams was the violin teacher and conductor of the University Symphony Orchestra for 32 years while a member of the faculty of the Department of Music at UCM.

This scholarship has been created through the generous gifts of his colleagues, former students, friends and numerous individuals of the community who were touched by his teaching, violin performance, caring ways and friendship.

CRITERIA:

To apply, a student must:

a. be a full-time student in good academic standing at UCM;

b. be designated the concertmaster in the University Symphony Orchestra;

c. demonstrate good character, leadership and service.

SELECTION PROCESS:

1. The recipient(s) of the Hugh B. and Phyllis E. Williams Orchestra Concertmaster Scholarship will be recommended by the Faculty Audition Committee of the Department of Music. Recipient(s) shall be approved by the UCM Scholarships and Awards Officer.

2. The Selection Committee, with the approval of the donor and the Executive Director of the Foundation, will annually establish the number and award amount. If adequate funding is not available, the Selection Committee may exercise the option of making no selection.
