Warrensburg, MO—The Office of Greek Life at the University of Central Missouri is proud to announce the 2008-2009 Greek Award winners. The winners are announced annually following the Greek Week events at the closing ceremonies. Congratulations to the 2008-2009 Greek Award winners:

Outstanding Scholarship Award: Delta Zeta and Delta Chi. This award recognizes one fraternity and one sorority chapter with outstanding academic performance and academic programming efforts.

Chapter Programming Award: Alpha Sigma Alpha and Delta Chi. This award recognizes one fraternity and one sorority with outstanding programming efforts to enhance student learning and understanding.

Outstanding Campus Involvement Award: Theta Chi, Delta Zeta, and Sigma Kappa. This award recognizes the chapters who encourage and foster involvement in other clubs and organizations on campus, demonstrating Greek leadership.

Outstanding Philanthropy and Community Service Award: Alpha Sigma Alpha and Theta Chi. This award recognizes one fraternity and one sorority chapter with outstanding efforts in service, fundraising, and philanthropy.

Outstanding New Member/Member Education Award: Phi Sigma Kappa and Alpha Phi. This award is given to one fraternity and one sorority chapter that show excellence in new member programming and leadership development.

Outstanding Public Relations Award: Alpha Phi and Theta Chi. This award recognizes one fraternity and one sorority chapter who have demonstrated outstanding work in public relations and promotion of a positive Greek image.
The Greek 5-Star Award: Delta Zeta and Theta Chi. This award is the highest recognition a chapter can receive on UCM’s campus. It recognizes the fraternity and sorority who have accomplished the best overall achievements for the past year.

The Emerging Leader Award: Amber Cabrera and Matthew Leonard. This award recognizes one fraternity and one sorority member of the Greek community who demonstrate up-and-coming leadership potential.

Advisor of the Year Award: Dr. Sandi Hutchinson, Delta Zeta, and Jason Cannon, Phi Sigma Kappa. This award recognizes outstanding leadership and support from one sorority and one fraternity volunteer chapter advisor.

Dr. Stephen H Petersen Award: Dr. Rich Morrell, Vice President of Student Affairs. This award, named in honor of former UCM community member Dr. Petersen, is awarded in honor of outstanding service and commitment to the Greek community.

For more information about the Greek community at UCM, contact Kelly Waldram Cramer, Marketing Manager for Housing, at 660-543-8121 or waldram@ucmo.edu.