

UCM Academic Program Assessment
Summary Report
2015-2016

Prepared by Academic Program and Services

Program Assessment

This report mostly provides assessment information for 138 academic programs institution wide (87 undergraduate academic programs and 49 graduate academic programs).

78% of academic programs (81% of undergraduate programs and 71% of graduate programs) completed the program assessment in 2015-2016.

63% of program made actions for improvement.

24 % of programs left actions for improvement blank.

13% of program monitored data and made no actions for improvement.

Self-Evaluation of Program Assessment

59% academic program completed self-evaluation of program assessment.

Average scores: SLOs: 3.4, Measures: 3.3., Results: 3.2, Actions: 2.9.

Institutional Actions Based on Program Assessment Reports

Update information on assessment website following NILOA transparency Framework to provide centralized resources for university.

Communicate of Program Assessment Results to department chairs and deans.

Provide assessment support such regular and individual training to programs and departments.

